Bordeaux

Château TEYSSIER Vignonet

Jonathan Maltus has transformed St-Émilion Grand Cru Château Teyssier into one of the most sought-after wines of the appellation with riper fruit and well-controlled élevage. As well as the St-Emilion Grand Cru wines, there is a weighty but still fresh Sémillon-based white which is only entitled to the lowly Bordeaux AC since no white wines are permitted in the St-Emilion appellation. Along with Teyssier, Jonathan has extended the range in both directions, including some first class generic wines under the Pezat label.

"Since purchasing the estate in 1994, Jonathan and Lyn Maltus have raised the quality of Château Teyssier to rival that of the Crus Classés" (Oz Clarke & Steven Spurrier's Fine Wine Guide)

Along with Ausone, Teyssier was cited by Wine Behind The Label as a "stellar cellar" for its portfolio lead by this 'soft and attractive, relatively forward, spicy St-Emilion full of fleshy, dark, plummy fruit'.

Champagne

Michel ROCOURT Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, Côtes des Blancs

Damien Grzeszczak makes an excellent range of superb Premier and Grand Cru wines at Le Mesnil-sur-Oger in the heart of the Côte de Blancs. Pure Chardonnay – or Blanc des Blancs – and aged longer than most before release, they are therefore particularly fine with subtle aromas and soft mousses, very popular with consumers.

Burgundy

Jacques GIRARDIN Santenay

The wines are elegant and authentic Burgundies, the reds smooth and unctuous and the Santenay Blanc proving that rarities can be hidden gems. We have selected the three Premier Cru wines from Santenay which we felt to be a considerable step up from the Village 'Vieilles Vignes', with quite distinct, vineyard specific characters. They all spend 12 months in barriques, 30% new so it really is the terroir that makes the difference. On first taste, 'Maladiere' is more tightly wound but with aeration (or, better still, more time in the bottle) it is, perhaps, the finest of the three whereas 'Beauregard' is fleshier and 'Clos Rousseau' the most instantly accessible. Further north, the Chassagne Rouge (another Premier Cru, from 'Morgeot') is outstanding.

Domaine JOBLOT Givry

No-one who knows Burgundy would argue with the assertion that Domaine Joblot is the greatest estate in southern Burgundy. Only the home estate of DRC's Aubert de Villaine's comes anywhere close to rivalling the wines of Jean-Marc and Vincent Joblot. It is not going too far to say that the wines made in this 14ha estate are better than many grand cru wines from the Cote d'Or. All the wines have excellent levels of concentration with impressive depth and acidity which is considered at least as important here as sugar levels.

Antione LIENHARDT Nuits St Georges

If you are a Burgophile who simply wants excellent Pinot but are unconcerned with labels, Antione Lienhardt's wines will be just what you are looking for since, as most of the range comes from the humble Côte de Nuits, these are wines that punch well above their weight without breaking the bank.

Consistently the greatest and longest-lived Châteauneuf-du-Pape of all, Beaucastel has an unusually high Mourvèdre content of around 35% in most vintages. This gives it great longevity, concentration and structure. A must for any Châteauneuf enthusiast.

Raymond USSEGLIO Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Stéphane Usseglio makes rich, full wines from vines over 50 years old, consistently in the top tier of wines from the appellation since 1998. Wines tend to be more elegant than many of their peers, an important consideration when choosing wines to enjoy with food. "Cuvée Impériale" comes from vines planted in 1902 at La Crau, one of the most renowned lieu dits in the appellation. Whilst Parker generally shows a preference for highly-extracted, jammy wines, even he cannot deny the charm of these elegant wines which he regularly awards with ratings well into the nineties.

Rhône Valley: The Southern Rhône

Domaine des ANGES Mornoiron

Organic: In conversion from 2009

Dubliner Ciarán Rooney built up an impressive CV including stints at Château Lafite-Rothschild prior to his arrival at Mornoiron. These are modern Rhône wines and the prestige selections bottled under the “L’Archange” label. The white is pure Roussanne; the red an ever-changing blend of Grenache and Syrah from the estate’s oldest vines. Both see some new oak ageing.

“These wines are wrongly priced – in the consumer’s favour” (Matthew Nugent, Evening Herald)

There are two Gigondas cuvées, “Le Grand Montmirail” and the oaked “Les Hauts de Montmirail”. Both are consistently amongst the finest wines to come out of the appellation each year with “Les Hauts” one of the most long-lived and powerful. “Chabriles” is a top-flight prestige cuvée from one of the leading Côtes du Rhône Villages. Hommage and Secrets are rare wines flying the flag for their respective appellations.

Domaine des COTEAUX DES TRAVERS Rasteau

Organic: In conversion

The name of Robert Charavin's 13 hectare estate means "the hillside of the rising sun". Vines averaging 40 years are cultivated traditionally without herbicides - indeed, Robert is moving the estate into biodynamics. In recent years, a little more oak has been used in the ageing of the wines although in all but the top cuvées this is apparent only in the texture, not in the flavour of the bottled wine. Domaine des Côteaux des Travers has fast become one of the appellation's leading estates.

ECOCERT

We have been following the progress of Chateau Juvenal from its early days and, like anyone else who has tasted the wines here, have been blown away by the quality. The standard range, Ribes de Vallat, offers a stunning Clairette/Viognier blend with more than a nod towards fine Burgundy, a delightful rose and a Grenache-dominated red with a very Burgundian mouthfeel. The slightly more expensive Terre du Petit Homme red is a more classic barrel-aged Grenache/Syrah blend which will stand the test of time. In short, a

Languedoc & Roussillon

Mas de DAUMAS GASSAC/Moulin de GASSAC Aniane

Mas de Daumas Gassac is generally regarded as the Languedoc's greatest wine, perhaps the only truly world-class wine the region has to offer. Organically produced grapes on low yielding vines become fully ripe whilst retaining their expression of the exceptional terroir. Wines are vins de pays since the main variety used (80%) is Cabernet Sauvignon which is not permitted under AOC rules.

New to the range is "Terra", a high quality wine from mature Grenache and Syrah that is the first wine from this estate to be organically certified.

In addition to the grand vin, the family oversees a négociant operation in the valley, producing a range of wines under the Moulin de Gassac label. These are reliably good, straightforward expressions of the varietals and blends used.

"The only grand cru of the Languedoc" (Hugh Johnson)

Crissante ALESSANDRIA La Morra

Crissante Alessandria began making Barolo in 1958 from his home in the Roggeri sector in Santa Maria di La Morra. Over the years the company grew, new vineyards were bought in the best locations around La Morra and the Alessandria family started to produce differentiated Barolo Cru Roggeri and Capalot, at the same time switching to small barriques for ageing the wines.

Within two years of taking over the family estate, Fabrizio had his first Tre Bicchieri award. The vineyards are planted to Nebbiolo, Barbera and Arneis in the under-valued Roero district (the "other one") and, as such represent excellent value for such superb wines, each wine revealing the winemaker's sensitivity. A particular success - and hugely popular - is the sweet "Bric Bastia" made from late-harvested Arneis, a rarity indeed.

GRASSO FRATELLI Treiso

A good find: the Grasso brothers make high quality Barbaresco which they leave to age before marketing so we are able to offer some mature vintages at very reasonable prices. The Riserva from 2008 won the regional trophy at the Decanter World Wine Awards in 2015. Treiso is, perhaps, the best commune for Dolcetto and the Broccardo wine is rightly regarded as one of the very best. Trej, a blend of the three main varieties from the region is delightful.

Giovanni MANZONE Monforte d'Alba

Giovanni Manzone is a traditionalist who employs some modern techniques including long macerations and the use of French barrels. The wines have been improving wonderfully over the last few years and 2006 and 2007 saw back-to-back vintages of some exceptional wines putting this estate firmly in the top tier of Barolo production.

NADA Giuseppe Treiso

Enrico Nada has been at the helm since 2008. Treiso is one of the four Barbaresco communes, considered to produce the most fragrant Nebbiolo and Dolcetto. With the family vineyards in the highly prized Casot sector, Enrico has raised the profile of this small estate which makes some very good wines which are flamboyant and, as such, work extremely well on restaurant lists.

Cantina RIZZI Treiso

Modern classics from Enrico Dellapiano who is fortunate enough to own land in some of the very best terroirs in all of Barbaresco, particularly in Pajore, one of the grand cru tipped sites. These are long-lived wines which really need time in the cellar to show at their best. The late-harvest passito Moscato, Frimaio, is a must for any fan of sweet wines.

Cascina SARIA Neive

Cascina Saria is a relative newcomer to Barbaresco; the estate has been in the Abbruzzo family for many years but it is only recently they began estate bottling. The wines are made to an exceptionally high standard and prices are extremely competitive.

Poggio al GELLO Montecucco

As well as Sangiovese Grosso (the clone producing the highest quality Sangiovese, as in Brunello), Giorgio Chiarini and Alda Nelli are keen to revive native Tuscan varieties such as Pugnitello but, inevitably, it is the Brunello lookalike, Sangiovese wines that draw the crowds.

Tenute MONTE ROSOLA Tuscany

Monte Rosola is in a stunning setting between San Gimignano and Volterra – outside the Chianti boundaries – with only two hectares planted to vines. Total production is a miniscule 5,000 bottles so it is no problem to put quality first. Gambero Rosso discovered the estate even before Alberto Antonini took over creative control.
