Bordeaux

Château TEYSSIER Vignonet

Jonathan Maltus has transformed St-Émilion Grand Cru Château Teyssier into one of the most sought-after wines of the appellation. The wine is riper fruit and well-controlled levage. As well as the St-Emilion Grand Cru wines, there is a weighty but still fresh Sémillon-based white which is only entitled to the lowly Bordeaux AC since no white wines are permitted in the St-Emilion appellation. Along with Teyssier, Jonathan has extended the range in both directions, including some first class generic wines under the Pezat label.

"Since purchasing the estate in 1994, Jonathan and Lyn Maltus have raised the quality of Château Teyssier to rival that of the Classés" (Oz Clarke & Steven Spurrier's Fine Wine Guide)

Along with Ausone, Teyssier was cited by Wine Behind The Label as a "stellar cellar" for its portfolio including this 'soft and attractive, relatively forward, spicy St-Emilion full of fleshy, dark plummy fruit'.

Pascal et Nicolas REVERDY Sancerre

It isn't often that we enjoy Sauvignon Blanc but the Reverdy family consistently manages to produce wines which are just that little more rounded and beautifully balanced. The prestige cuvee, Les Anges Lots, is aged in barrels which further rounds it out. However, the family also makes some fabulous red and rose wines from Pinot Noir which are sweet, fresh and very alluring.

Jacques GIRARDIN Santenay

The wines are elegant and authentic Burgundies, the reds smooth and unctuous and the Santenay Blanc proving that rarities can be hidden gems. We have selected the three Premier Cru wines from Santenay which we felt to be a considerable step up from the 'Vieilles Vignes', with quite distinct, vineyard specific characters. They all spend 12 months in barriques, 30% new so it really is the terroir that makes the difference. On first taste, 'Maladiere' is more tightly wound but with aeration (or, better still, more time in the bottle) it is, perhaps, the finest of the three whereas 'Beauregard' is fleshier and 'Clos Rousseau' the most instantly accessible. Furthermore, the Chassagne Rouge (another Premier Cru, from 'Morgeot') is outstanding.

Antione LIENHARDT Nuits St Georges

If you are a Burgophile who simply wants excellent Pinot but are unconcerned with labels, Antione Lienhardt's wines will be just what you are looking for since, as most of the range comes from the humble Côte de Nuits, these are wines that punch well above their price without breaking the bank.

Domaine JOBLOT Givry

No-one who knows Burgundy would argue with the assertion that Domaine Joblot is the greatest estate in southern Burgundy. On the home estate of DRC's Aubert de Villaine's comes anywhere close to rivalling the wines of Jean-Marc and Vincent Joblot. It is not too far to say that the wines made in this 14ha estate are better than many grand cru wines from the Cote d'Or. All the wines have excellent levels of concentration with impressive depth and acidity which is considered at least as important here as sugar levels.

Rhône Valley: Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Raymond USSEGLIO Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Stéphane Usseglio makes rich, full wines from vines over 50 years old, consistently in the top tier of wines from the appellation since 1998. Wines tend to be more elegant than many of their peers, an important consideration when choosing wines to enjoy with food. "Cuvée Impériale" comes from vines planted in 1902 ~~in~~ Crau, one of the most renowned ~~the~~ lieux dits in the appellation. Whilst Parker generally shows a preference for highly-extracted, jammy wines, even he cannot deny the charm of these elegant wines which he regularly awards with ratings well into the nineties.

Rhône Valley: The Southern Rhône

Domaine BON REMEDE Mazan

As with most of the estates we work with, Bon Remede is one we have been visiting for years so we know these wines well. Fred and Lucile Delay are the third generation to farm this 28 ha estate in the best sector of the Ventoux appellation. The subscribe to a Terra Vitis approach whereby all the wines are farmed organically but, for us, it is the quality of the wines that impresses, especially given the low prices of this range. La Grange Delay is the flagship wine which punches well above its weight but for more specialist cuvees, look to Vignes Rousses (mostly Carignan) or Secret de Vincent (almost pure Syrah).

Domaine BRUSSET Cairanne

One of the most important estates in both Gigondas and Cairanne, established in 1947 by André Brusset, grandfather of Laurent, current winemaker. There are two Gigondas cuvées, "Le Grand Montmirail" and the oaked "Les Hauts de Montmirail". Both are consistently amongst the finest wines to come out of the appellation each year with "Les Hauts" one of the most long-lived and powerful. "Chabriles" is a top-flight prestige cuvée from one of the leading Côtes du Rhône Villages. Hommage and Secrets are rare wines flying the flag for their respective appellations.

Domaine de la CHARITE Saze

ECOCERT

This excellent Côtes du Rhône estate is managed by the dynamic, youthful Christophe Coste who manages his family's 45 ha of vines. In only his second vintage he was awarded Cup de Cœur in the Guide Hachette. He has continued this trend with citations in every edition of the guide since then. In addition to La Charite, Christophe also owns Chateauneuf estate Chateau Capucine.

Chateau JUVENAL St Hippolyte les Graveyron

ECOCERT

We have been following the progress of Chateau Juvenal from its early days and, like anyone else who has tasted the wines here been blown away by the quality. The standard range Ribes de Vallat, offers a stunning Clairette/Viognier blend with more than a nod towards fine Burgundy, a delightful rose and a Grenache-dominated red with a very Burgundian mouthfeel. The slightly more expensive Terre du Petit Homme red is a more classic barrel-aged Grenache/Syrah blend which will stand the test of time. In short, a real find.

Domaine SAINTE-ANNE St Gervais

Long regarded as perhaps the very best estate in the Cotes du Rhone Villages appellation, the wines of Ste-Anne have the purity normally associated with mono-varietal regions such as Burgundy. The Steinmayer family came from Austria via Burgundy so that may be the reason. Top cuvees are all mono-varietal too: Rouvieres is a Bandol-esque Mourvedre whilst Mourillons, the only cuvee to date, is 100% Syrah in the style of a top St Joseph.

Pierre GAILLARD Malleval

A pioneering winemaker, Pierre Gaillard's first vineyard was the Clos de Cuminaille in St Joseph. He now farms 25 hectares in the region including the Seyssuel vineyard (he is also one of the three men behind the Vins de Vienne) and, more recently, he has added estates in the Languedoc and Roussillon regions to his portfolio. Quality is high throughout.

Mas de DAUMAS GASSAC/Moulin de GASSAC Aniane

Mas de Daumas Gassac is generally regarded as the Languedoc's greatest wine, perhaps the only truly world-class wine the region to offer. Organically produced grapes on low yielding vines become fully ripe whilst retaining their expression of the exceptional. Wines are vins de pays since the main variety used (80%) is Cabernet Sauvignon which is not permitted under AOC rules.

New to the range is "Terra", a high quality wine from mature Grenache and Syrah that is the first wine from this estate to be organically certified.

In addition to the grand vin, the family oversees négociant operation in the valley, producing a range of wines under the Moulin de Gassac label. These are reliably good, straightforward expressions of the varietals and blends used.

Domaine MADELOC Banyuls-sur-Mer

Pierre Gaillard enjoys fortified wines so it was inevitable that he would find a property in Banyuls-sur-Mer, home to France's finest P style wines, made here from Grenache. He makes several examples including 'Terre Mer' a Banyuls/Maury blend made in partnership with Terres de Fagayras but the icing on the cake is the solera dating back to 1920 from which he draws just a few cases each year.

Château de SALLES

Château de Salles, a 30 hectare vineyard owned by Benoit Hébert, is located in the heart of the Bas-Armagnac region in the Gers département of South-West France. Fine Armagnacs have long been made here, using recipes and techniques handed down from generation to generation. The vineyard has been recognized by "Excellence Gers" and vintages 1986, 1988 and 1990 have all been awarded Gold medals at the Concours Agricole in Paris.

Crissante ALESSANDRIA La Morra

Crissante Alessandria began making Barolo in 1958 from his home in the Roggeri sector in Santa Maria di La Morra. Over the years the company grew, new vineyards were bought in the best locations around La Morra and the Alessandria family started to produce differentiated Barolo Cru Roggeri and Capalot, at the same time switching to small barriques for ageing the wines.

The vineyards are planted to Nebbiolo, Barbera and Arneis in the under-valued Roero district (the "other one") and, as such represent excellent value for such superb wine each wine revealing the winemaker's sensitivity. A particular success - and hugely popular - is the sweet "Bric Bastia" made from harvested Arneis, a rarity indeed.

One of the great things about the Italian vineyards is their ability to throw up rare and wonderful grape varieties. At a restaurant in Calosso, we discovered a page dedicated to the local grape, Gamba di Pernice, so called because so-called because of the shape clusters and their red stalks.
