Burgundy

Jacques GIRARDIN/Justin GIRARDIN Santenay

The wines are elegant and authentic Burgundies, the reds smooth and unctuous and the Santenay Blanc proving that rarities can be hidden gems. We have selected the three Premier Cru wines from Santenay which all spend 12 months in barriques, 30% new. They really are some of the best value Burgundies available in the UK today.

The estate was run by Jacques Girardin, brother of Vincent, until 2013 when his son, Justin, returned from college and armed with experience from both within and outside Burgundy, determined to make the most of the terroirs and produce a range of wines which are all quite different from each other. He has certainly succeeded. Maladiere always displays more black fruit character whereas Beauregard is fleshier and Clos Rousseau the most instantly accessible.

Antione LIENHARDT Nuits St Georges

If you are a Burgophile who simply wants excellent Pinot but are unconcerned with labels, Antione Lienhardt's wines will be just what you are looking for since, as most of the range comes from the humble Côte de Nuits, these are wines that punch well above their weight without breaking the bank.

Burgundy

Domaine JOBLOT Givry

No-one who knows Burgundy would argue with the assertion that Domaine Joblot is the greatest estate in southern Burgundy. Only the home estate of DRC's Aubert de Villaine's comes anywhere close to rivalling the wines of Juliette Joblot who has taken the estate to new levels since she took over from her father, Jean-Marc, and uncle, Vincent Joblot. It is not going too far to say that the wines made in this 14ha estate are better than many grand cru wines from the Cote d'Or. All the wines have excellent levels of concentration with impressive depth and acidity which is considered at least as important here as sugar levels.

The main focus of the estate is its premier cru reds from four lieu-dits north of the village of Givry. Whilst they are neighbours, each parcel produces quite different wines with Bois Chevaux the most red-fruited, Clos Marole offering more black fruit character, Servoisine power and Cellier aux Moines elegance and refinement. A relatively new addition to the range, Empreintes, is a blend of all four and shows each of these characteristics in turn.

Rhône Valley: The Northern Rhône

Pierre GAILLARD Malleval

A pioneering winemaker, Pierre Gaillard's first vineyard was the Clos de Cuminaile in St Joseph. He now farms 25 hectares in the region including the Seyssuel vineyard (he is also one of the three men behind the Vins de Vienne) and, more recently, he has added estates in the Languedoc and Roussillon regions to his portfolio. Quality is high throughout.

Rhône Valley: Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Château de BEAUCASTEL/Famille PERRIN Orange

ECOCERT

Consistently the greatest and longest-lived Châteauneuf-du-Pape of all, Beaucastel has an unusually high Mourvèdre content of around 35% in most vintages. This gives it great longevity, concentration and structure. A must for any Châteauneuf enthusiast.

Rhône Valley: Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Château CAPUCINE (Christophe Coste) Saze

ECOCERT

A new project for Domaine de la Charite's owner, Christophe Coste, who owns a hectare of old-vine Grenache in the Gallimardes sector in the south of the appellation. His first vintage has turned out a superb, deep fruited, prestige quality wine.

Raymond USSEGLIO Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Stéphane Usseglio makes rich, full wines from vines over 50 years old, consistently in the top tier of wines from the appellation since 1998. Wines tend to be more elegant than many of their peers, an important consideration when choosing wines to enjoy with food. "Cuvée Impériale" comes from vines planted in 1902 at La Crau, one of the most renowned lieu dits in the appellation. Whilst Parker generally shows a preference for highly-extracted, jammy wines, even he cannot deny the charm of these elegant wines which he regularly awards with ratings well into the nineties.

XAVIER VIGNON Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Xavier Vignon is one of the top consultant winemakers in the south of France. He used to be a master Champagne blender (so he knows a thing or two about constructing wines) but now lives in the Rhône Valley from where he visits around 300 estates to advise them on viticulture and vinification. He sources grapes from many of his clients and makes an ever evolving range of wines which reflect the highest quality the region has to offer.

The Arcane range

Xavier is in the process of creating a new range which is designed to be the ultimate expression of a vintage, a grape or a terroir. It is a fascinating range, one in which the normal rules do not apply so, for example, we have listed them by cuvee name rather than appellation. Unlike other cuvees, the wines are produced once only and in limited quantities.

Domaine BON REMEDE Mazan

As with most of the estates we work with, Bon Remede is one we have been visiting for years so we know these wines well. Frederic and Lucile Delay are the third generation to farm this 28 ha estate in the best sector of the Ventoux appellation. The subscribe to the Terra Vitis approach whereby all the wines are farmed organically but, for us, it is the quality of the wines that impresses, especially given the low prices of this range. La Grange Delay is the flagship wine which punches well above its weight but for a more specialist cuvée, look to Secret de Vincent (almost pure Syrah).

Domaine BRUSSET Cairanne

One of the most important estates in both Gigondas and Cairanne, established in 1947 by André Brusset, grandfather of Laurent, the current winemaker. There are two Gigondas cuvées, "Le Grand Montmirail" and the oaked "Les Hauts de Montmirail". Both are consistently amongst the finest wines to come out of the appellation each year with "Les Hauts" one of the most long-lived and powerful. "Chabriles" is a top-flight prestige cuvée from one of the leading Côtes du Rhône Villages. Hommage and Secrets are rare wines flying the flag for their respective appellations.

Domaine de la CHARITE Saze

ECOCERT

This excellent Côtes du Rhône estate is managed by the dynamic, youthful Christophe Coste who manages his family's 45 ha of vines. In only his second vintage he was awarded Coup de Cœur in the Guide Hachette. He has continued this trend with citations in every edition of the guide since then. In addition to La Charite, Christophe also owns Chateauneuf estate, Chateau Capucine.

Chateau JUVENAL St Hippolyte les Graveyron

ECOCERT

We have been following the progress of Chateau Juvenal from its early days and, like anyone else who has tasted the wines here, have been blown away by the quality. The standard range, Ribes de Vallat, offers a stunning Clairette/Viognier blend with more than a nod towards fine Burgundy, a delightful rose and a Grenache-dominated red with a very Burgundian mouffle. The slightly more expensive Terre du Petit Homme red is a more classic barrel-aged Grenache/Syrah blend which will stand the test of time. In short, a real find.

Domaine SAINTE-ANNE St Gervais

Long regarded as perhaps the very best estate in the Cotes du Rhone Villages appellation, the wines of Ste-Anne have the purity normally associated with mono-varietal regions such as Burgundy. The Steinmayer family came from Austria via Burgundy so that may be the reason. Top cuvees are all mono-varietal too: Rouvieres is a Bandol-esque Mourvedre whilst Mourillons, the only cuvee to see wood, is 100% Syrah in the style of a top St Joseph.

Pascal et Nicolas REVERDY Sancerre

It isn't often that we enjoy Sauvignon Blanc but the Reverdy family consistently manages to produce wines which are just that little bit more rounded and beautifully balanced. The prestige cuvee, Les Anges Lots, is aged in barrels which further rounds it out. However, the family also makes some fabulous red and rose wines from Pinot Noir which are sweet, fresh and very alluring.

Languedoc & Roussillon

Domaine COTTEBRUNE Faugeres

Part of Pierre Gaillard's stable of, this estate was created in 2007 at high altitude in the southern Cevennes. Transhumance is very northern Rhone in style and represents superb value.

Mas de DAUMAS GASSAC/Moulin de GASSAC Aniane

Mas de Daumas Gassac is generally regarded as the Languedoc's greatest wine, perhaps the only truly world-class wine the region has to offer. Organically produced grapes on low yielding vines become fully ripe whilst retaining their expression of the exceptional terroir. Wines are vins de pays since the main variety used (80%) is Cabernet Sauvignon which is not permitted under AOC rules.

New to the range is "Terra", a high quality wine from mature Grenache and Syrah that is the first wine from this estate to be organically certified.

In addition to the grand vin, the family oversees a négociant operation in the valley, producing a range of wines under the Moulin de Gassac label. These are reliably good, straightforward expressions of the varietals and blends used.

"The only grand cru of the Languedoc" (Hugh Johnson)

Domaine MADELOC Banyuls-sur-Mer

Pierre Gaillard enjoys fortified wines so it was inevitable that he would find a property in Banyul-su-Mer, home to France's finest Port-style wines, made here from Grenache. He makes several examples including 'Terre Mer' a Banyuls/Maury blend made in partnership with Terres de Fagayras but the icing on the cake is the solera dating back to 1920 from which he draws just a few cases each year.

Fabrizio BATTAGLINO Veza d'Alba

Within two years of taking over the family estate, Fabrizio had his first Tre Bicchieri award. The vineyards are planted to Nebbiolo, Barbera and Arneis in the under-valued Roero district (the "other one") and, as such represent excellent value for such superb wines, each wine revealing the winemaker's sensitivity.

Filippo BROCCARDO Monforte d'Alba

Filippo, Laura and Federica Broccardo have followed the family traditions: respect for the land, passion for a job that never ends, techniques to cultivate vineyards naturally, natural vinification and so on. Consistently high-scoring, the Broccardo wines must offer one of the best values for money in Barolo today.

NADA Giuseppe Treiso

Enrico Nada has been at the helm since 2008. Treiso is one of the four Barbaresco communes, considered to produce the most fragrant Nebbiolo and Dolcetto. With the family vineyards in the highly prized Casot sector, Enrico has raised the profile of this small estate which makes some very good wines which are flamboyant and, as such, work extremely well on restaurant lists.

I CAMPI Verona

Flavio Pra is to the Veneto what Xavier Vignon is the the southern Rhone but with one difference: in addition to advising scores of wineries in the region, he owns some vineyards from which he produces a range of very polished wines including Valpolicella Superiore and Ripasso, Amarone and white wines from Soave and Lugana on the shores of Lake Garda. Gambero Rosso is clearly a big fan of the wines, awarding a Tre Bicchieri in every vintage, usually to the Ripasso or Soave.
