Bordeaux

Château TEYSSIER Vignonet

Jonathan Maltus has transformed St-Émilion Grand Cru Château Teyssier into one of the most sought-after wines of the appellation with riper fruit and well-controlled levage. As well as the St-Emilion Grand Cru wines, there is a weighty but still fresh Sémillon-based wine which is only entitled to the lowly Bordeaux AC since no white wines are permitted in the St-Emilion appellation. Along with Teyssier Jonathan has extended the range in both directions, including some first class generic wines under the Pezat label.

"Since purchasing the estate in 1994, Jonathan and Lyn Maltus have raised the quality of Château Teyssier to rival that of the (C Classés" (Oz Clarke & Steven Spurrier's Fine Wine Guide)

Along with Ausone, Teyssier was cited by Wine Behind The Label as a "stellar cellar" for its portfolio lead by this 'soft and attractive relatively forward, spicy St-Emilion full of fleshy, dark, plummy fruit'.

Champagne

Michel ROCOURT Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, Côtes des Blancs

Damien Grzeszczak makes an excellent range of superb Premier and Grand Cru wines at Le Mesnil-sur-Oger in the heart of the Côte des Blancs. Pure Chardonnay – or Blanc des Blancs – and aged longer than most before release, they are therefore particularly fine with subtle aromas and soft mousses, very popular with consumers.

Burgundy

Jacques GIRARDIN Santenay

The wines are elegant and authentic Burgundies, the reds smooth and unctuous and the Santenay Blanc proving that rarities can be gems. We have selected the three Premier Cru wines from Santenay which we felt to be a considerable step up from the Village 'Vignes', with quite distinct, vineyard specific characters. They all spend 12 months in barriques, 30% new so it really is the terroir that makes the difference. On first taste, 'Maladiere' is more tightly wound but with aeration (or, better still, more time in the bottle) it is, perhaps, the finest of the three whereas 'Beauregard' is fleshier and 'Clos Rousseau' the most instantly accessible. Further north, the Chassagne Rouge (another Premier Cru, from 'Morgeot') is outstanding.

Antione LIENHARDT Nuits St Georges

If you are a Burgophile who simply wants excellent Pinot but are unconcerned with labels, Antione Lienhardt's wines will be just what you are looking for since, as most of the range comes from the humble Côte de Nuits, these are wines that punch well above their weight without breaking the bank.

Burgundy

Domaine JOBLOT Givry

No-one who knows Burgundy would argue with the assertion that Domaine Joblot is the greatest estate in southern Burgundy. Onl home estate of DRC's Aubert de Villaine's comes anywhere close to rivalling the wines of Jean-Marc and Vincent Joblot. It is not g too far to say that the wines made in this 14ha estate are better than many grand cru wines from the Cote d'Or. All the wines have excellent levels of concentration with impressive depth and acidity which is considered at least as important here as sugar levels.

Raymond USSEGLIO Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Stéphane Usseglio makes rich, full wines from vines over 50 years old, consistently in the top tier of wines from the appellation since 1998. Wines tend to be more elegant than many of their peers, an important consideration when choosing wines to enjoy with food "Cuvée Impériale" comes from vines planted in 1902 à Crau, one of the most renowned lieux dits in the appellation. Whilst Parker generally shows a preference for highly-extracted, jammy wines, even he cannot deny the charm of these elegant wines which he regularly awards with ratings well into the nineties.

XAVIER VIGNON Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Xavier Vignon is one of the top consultant winemakers in the south of France. He used to be a master Champagne blender (so he a thing or two about constructing wines) but now lives in the Rhône Valley from where he visits around 300 estates to advise them viticulture and vinification. He sources grapes from many of his clients and makes an ever evolving range of wines which reflect the Xavier is in the process of creating a new range which is designed to be the ultimate expression of a vintage, a ~~grape~~ perceira. It is a fascinating range, one in which the normal rules do not apply so, for example, we have listed them by cuvee name rather than app. Unlike other cuvees, the wines are produced once only.

Domaine BRUSSET Cairanne

One of the most important estates in both Gigondas and Cairanne, established in 1947 by André Brusset, grandfather of Laurent, the current winemaker. There are two Gigondas cuvées, "Le Grand Montmirail" and the oaked "Les Hauts de Montmirail". Both are consistently amongst the finest wines to come out of the appellation each year with "Les Hauts" one of the most long-lived and powerful. "Chabriles" is a top-flight prestige cuvée from one of the leading Côte du Rhône Villages. Hommage and Secrets are rare wines flying the flag for their respective appellations.

Chateau JUVENAL St Hippolyte les Graveyron

ECOCERT

We have been following the progress of Chateau Juvenal from its early days and, like anyone else who has tasted the wines here, been blown away by the quality. The standard range Ribes de Vallat, offers a stunning Clairette/Viognier blend with more than a nod towards fine Burgundy, a delightful rose and a Grenache-dominated red with a very Burgundian mouffee. The slightly more expensive Terre du Petit Homme red is a more classic barrel-aged Grenache/Syrah blend which will stand the test of time. In short, a real find

Domaine SAINTE-ANNE St Gervais

Long regarded as perhaps the very best estate in the Cotes du Rhone Villages appellation, the wines of Ste-Anne have the purity associated with mono-varietal regions such as Burgundy. The Steinmayer family came from Austria via Burgundy so that may be the reason. Top cuvees are all mono-varietal too: Rouvieres is a Bandol-esque Mourvedre whilst Mourillons, the only cuvee to see over 100% Syrah in the style of a top St Joseph.

Pierre GAILLARD Malleval

A pioneering winemaker, Pierre Gaillard's first vineyard was the Clos de Cuminaille in St Joseph. He now farms 25 hectares in the region including the Seyssuel vineyard (he is also one of the three men behind the Vins de Vienne) and, more recently, he has added estates in the Languedoc and Roussillon regions to his portfolio. Quality is high throughout.

Mas de DAUMAS GASSAC/Moulin de GASSAC Aniane

Mas de Daumas Gassac is generally regarded as the Languedoc's greatest wine, perhaps the only truly world-class wine the region to offer. Organically produced grapes on low yielding vines become fully ripe whilst retaining their expression of the exceptional. Wines are vins de pays since the main variety used (80%) is Cabernet Sauvignon which is not permitted under AOC rules.

New to the range is "Terra", a high quality wine from mature Grenache and Syrah that is the first wine from this estate to be organically certified.

In addition to the grand vin, the family oversees enégociant operation in the valley, producing a range of wines under the Moulin de Gassac label. These are reliably good, straightforward expressions of the varietals and blends used.

"The only grand cru of the Languedoc" (Hugh Johnson)

Domaine MADELOC Banyuls-sur-Mer

Pierre Gaillard enjoys fortified wines so it was inevitable that he would find a property in Banyuls-sur-Mer, home to France's finest Pilsner style wines, made here from Grenache. He makes several examples including 'Terre Mer' a Banyuls/Maury blend made in partnership with Terres de Fagayras but the icing on the cake is the solera dating back to 1920 from which he draws just a few cases each year.

Over the years the company grew, new vineyards were bought in the best locations around La Morra and the Alessandria family started to produce differentiated Barolo Cru Roggeri and Capalot, at the same time switching to small barriques for ageing the wines.

One of the great things about the Italian vineyards is their ability to throw up rare and wonderful grape varieties. At a restaurant in Calosso, we discovered a page dedicated to the local grape, Gamba di Pernice, so called because so-called because of the shape clusters and their red stalks. Angelo Grasso is the man behind the very best example of this fascinating grape but his production is
